

Imperium Security Specialists (ISS) provides security services on behalf of Garden City Casino.

Darren Furtado is a Preferred Investigations Consultant and Investigator assisting w/public safety background investigations. He also works with Imperium Security and is in charge of Sales and Marketing. Darren earned a BA in Communications from Concordia University, Irvine and made the Dean's List during all 4 years of college. He graduated Summa cum laude and also was the recipient of a baseball scholarship that opened the door for professional baseball opportunities. After eventually obtaining a career ending injury, Darren has joined his family business venture.